APPENDIX 2: THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER	1

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Istituto Marangoni recognises there may be occasions where students wish to raise legitimate complaints relating to their course, or the facilities and services provided by the School. It is important for both students and staff to know that such complaints will be dealt with seriously, transparently, and without fear of recrimination. To ensure this, Istituto Marangoni London has in place a Student Complaints Procedure which details the process and parameters for making a complaint, alongside how complaints may be responded to.
- 1.2. This procedure is designed to ensure that all student complaints are heard and responded to in a manner that is fair, transparent, timely and based on the consideration of relevant evidence. It will safeguard, as far as is reasonably practicable, the interests and well-being of any student making a complaint and of Istituto Marangoni London staff who may be named or otherwise involved in a complaint.
- 1.3. The management of student complaints at Istituto Marangoni London is guided by the Office for Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education's (OIA) Good Practice Framework.
- 1.4. The Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (OIA) runs an independent scheme to review student complaints. Istituto Marangoni, London is a member of this scheme. If you are unhappy with the outcome, you may be able to ask the OIA to review your complaint or appeal. You can find more information about making a complaint to the OIA, what it can and can't look at and what it can do to put things right here: <https://www.oiahe.org.uk/students>.

2. PRINCIPLES AND SCOPE

- 2.1. Through this policy, the School commits to:
 - 2.1.1. Timely and transparent procedures:
 - 2.1.1.1. All complaints are dealt with in a timely manner and through processes which are clear, straightforward, and transparent.
 - 2.1.2. Anonymity or third-party complaints:
 - 2.1.2.1. Istituto Marangoni London expects that persons with concerns should be responsible for making these concerns known themselves. Complaints made by a third-party will only be admitted to these procedures under exceptional circumstances and with the student's written consent.
 - 2.1.2.2. Complaints require investigation to enable resolution. For practical reasons therefore, normally no action will be taken in the event of complaints made anonymously.
 - 2.1.3. Submission in good faith:
 - 2.1.3.1. The School presumes that all complaints are submitted in good faith and will not disadvantage any student for bringing forward a complaint.

2.1.3.2. Complaints that Istituto Marangoni London considers to be unreasonably persistent or vexatious will not be considered and could result in action through the Student Disciplinary Regulations.

2.1.4. Impartiality in investigation:

2.1.4.1. All complaints are investigated by staff who have no material interest in the complaint.

2.1.5. Privacy:

2.1.5.1. Staff investigate complaints with due regard for the privacy of all parties. The complaint is only disclosed to those immediately involved and/or those whose participation is necessary for a resolution. All parties are required to respect the confidentiality of the process.

2.1.6. Confidentiality:

2.1.6.1. Confidentiality will be respected in conducting all aspects of the complaints procedures. However, any student or member of staff about whom a complaint is made will have the right to be informed of the complaint and its nature and have access to any relevant evidence.

2.1.6.2. If a student requests that their identity be kept confidential, this is respected up to the point where disclosure is necessary to progress or resolve the issue, in which case the complainant is informed in advance of the disclosure.

2.1.6.3. The School will not disclose any information to third parties regarding investigations and outcomes from student complaint cases unless legal exceptions under the Data Protection Act apply.

2.1.7. Student Representation:

2.1.7.1. Students involved in a student complaint shall have the right to be accompanied to any discussions, meetings, or hearings by a friend or student representative. At least 48 hours before the discussion, meeting or hearing, the student should advise the Quality Assurance Team of the name and status of the person accompanying them.

2.1.7.2. The Istituto Marangoni London complaints procedure is an internal process and does not have the same degree of formality as a court of law. As such, legal representation is not permitted at any discussion, meeting, or hearing.

2.1.8. Advice and Guidance

2.1.8.1. Complainants may wish to consult with the following sources of advice when considering their complaint:

- Programme Leader
- Student Services – are able to offer information and guidance on many aspects of student life and can signpost to appropriate specialist services
- Quality Assurance – the team can provide information and guidance on the complaints procedure.

2.1.9. Complaints Including Elements of Appeal

2.1.9.1. Where a complaint also contains within it an element of an academic appeal, it is not possible for the academic appeal to be dealt with under this procedure. A separate Appeal must be lodged in line with the procedures outlined in the Academic Appeals Policy or Procedures.

2.1.10. Complaints including a request for a reimbursement of fees

2.1.10.1. When a complaint includes a request for a reimbursement of fees, the investigating officer will review the complaint in line with the Compensation and Refund Policy.

2.1.11. Complaints against Istituto Marangoni staff

2.1.11.1. Where a complaint is against a member of staff the following principles apply:

- an assumption of no fault until the balance of evidence from the investigation demonstrates otherwise;
- the right of the member of staff to be informed of the complaint and have access to any relevant evidence presented;
- the right of the member of staff to be accompanied to any discussions, meetings, or hearings by a colleague;
- the right of the member of staff to know the outcome of the complaint; and
- confidentiality of the process will be respected.

2.1.11.2. Where a complaint involving an allegation of misconduct by a member of staff is upheld, this may form the basis of further action under the Staff Disciplinary Procedure.

2.1.12. Staff involvement in the Complaints Process:

2.1.12.1. It may be appropriate for a member of staff to be called as a witness or provide information as part of a complaint investigation. In these circumstances it is expected that staff will support the operation of the procedure.

3. WHAT IS COVERED BY THE COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE?

3.1. As guided by the OIA's Good Practice Framework, Istituto Marangoni London defines a student complaint as an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more students about a Provider's action or lack of action, or about the standard of service provided by or on behalf of the provider.

3.2. Istituto Marangoni London Student Complaints Procedure covers learning opportunities for registered students and actions by the School or failures by it to act on services it provides for its students, or which are provided by others on its behalf.

- 3.3. All information submitted in relation to complaints shall be dealt confidentially, and only disclosed as necessary to progress the complaint.
- 3.4. The School confirms that making a complaint in good faith about any aspect of the learning opportunities or services it provides for students will not compromise or otherwise affect their standing with the School, prejudice their progress, or how they are treated by it or its staff.
- 3.5. A complaint may include, but is not limited to:
- perceived failure by Istituto Marangoni London to follow an appropriate administrative process or satisfactorily apply an institutional policy;
 - perceived failure of Istituto Marangoni London to meet obligations outlined in Programme / Student Handbooks;
 - concerns about the quality of facilities, learning resources or services provided by Istituto Marangoni London;
 - concerns about organisations or contractors providing a service on behalf of Istituto Marangoni London (including placement providers);
 - perceived deficiencies in academic provision (e.g., scheduling of classes; amended submission dates; submission procedures for assessed work; inconsistent advice; provision of feedback; quality or frequency of supervision);
 - perceived deficiencies in standards of service, for example, support facilities or administrative services;
 - perceived misinformation about an academic programme;
 - inappropriate behaviour or conduct by a member of staff or contractor;
- 3.6. The Complaints Procedure does not cover the following
- 3.6.1. Academic Appeals: Appeals against the decision of an assessment board is handled under the Academic Appeal processes and procedures.
- 3.6.2. Bullying or Harassment: Allegations of bullying or harassment by a student or member of staff fall under the Student or Staff Disciplinary Policies; students believing they are being harassed in any way should first seek the advice of the Student Services Team.
- 3.6.3. Whistleblowing: Matters of public interest should be dealt with under the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblowing) Policy.
- 3.7. Where a student submits multiple complaints relating to the same issue, the School reserves the right to treat the matter as a single complaint.
- 3.8. Complaints relating to staff conduct will be referred to HR as a disciplinary matter where appropriate.

4. TIMESCALES

- 4.1. Complaints should be raised as soon as possible to ensure prompt investigation and swift resolution. Students who wish to make a complaint must invoke the informal (stage one) complaints procedure within one calendar month of the incident that has given rise to the complaint.
- 4.2. Students who wish to make a formal complaint must do so within 10 working days of the stage 1 response or alleged incident if the matter is escalated directly to stage 2.
- 4.3. Students who have left the School (including recent graduates) may make a formal complaint within the same time period.
- 4.4. Only in exceptional circumstances, and with supporting evidence, will complaints be considered outside of these timescales.
- 4.5. Student complaints will normally be dealt with within 20 working days from receipt of a formal (stage two) complaint, but the School reserves the right to make a reasonable extension to this timescale during student vacation periods. For complaints that are about serious matters (for example, involving the health, well-being, or personal security of a student and / or other students or staff) the School may consider whether to take the matter immediately to the formal (stage two) of the complaints procedure.

5. WHO CAN SUBMIT A COMPLAINT?

- 5.1. Student complaints can be made by existing students including students undertaking placement, students on approved periods of suspension, or recent graduates.
- 5.2. Student complaints may be raised by individual students, or a group of students can raise a collective complaint if they have experienced the same problem. In such instances, the group should identify a single spokesperson. Each member of the group must provide their student ID number and consent to participate in the group complaint. They must also be able to demonstrate that they have been personally affected by the matter.
- 5.3. Separate complaints procedures are available for applicants – IML Admissions Complaints and Appeals Policy

6. SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF A COMPLAINT

- 6.1. If a student's complaint overlaps with other School regulations or policies, advice should be sought from the Registrar about how to progress the complaint, if at all. The progress of a complaint through any stage of this procedure may be suspended for a reasonable period. The School reserves the right to suspend a complaint's investigation in the event of the complainant pursuing the case through legal proceedings during or prior to engagement with this procedure. The investigation will resume upon completion of any legal proceedings and where outcomes of the proceedings are known.

6.2. The School may, in exceptional circumstances, terminate a complaint at any stage where a student's behaviour in relation to the complaint or investigation is deemed unacceptable or disruptive, or where a complaint is deemed to be vexatious or malicious. In such cases, the School may also invoke the disciplinary procedures in the Student Code of Conduct.

6.3. Examples of unacceptable or disruptive behaviour could include (but not limited to):

- audio/visual recording of meetings without written permission;
- threatening, intimidating or abusive behaviour towards any member of staff connected with the investigation process;
- any attempt to interfere with the investigation process;
- sending excessive communications, via any medium, to the school team;
- providing false or manufactured evidence or information as part of the investigation process.

6.4. In the event of the potential complaint termination, students will be given 14 days' notice with a final chance to respond.

7. MAKING AN INFORMAL (STAGE ONE) STUDENT COMPLAINT

7.1. An informal complaint is defined as a concern that is raised by a student either verbally or in writing with a member of staff.

7.2. Complaints should normally be raised within one calendar month of the event.

7.3. Where possible students should seek to resolve their concerns with the person directly responsible for the subject of their complaint as soon as the issue arises.

7.4. Similarly, Staff, Services and Facilities should seek to address any complaints on an informal basis as soon as they are drawn to their attention.

7.5. In either case, the member of staff is required to keep a written record of the meeting and send a copy to Quality Assurance.

7.6. The member of staff will also consider whether it would be appropriate to seek to resolve the complaint by means of an alternative dispute process such as mediation or conciliation.

7.7. It is anticipated that it will be possible to resolve many concerns at this stage before it becomes necessary to take a complaint to a formal investigation. The outcome of the complaint and any agreed actions will be confirmed to the student in writing.

7.8. If a student's concern has not been resolved to their satisfaction, they have the right to proceed to a formal investigation.

8. MAKING A FORMAL (STAGE TWO) STUDENT COMPLAINT

8.1. Stage 2 involves the submission of the Stage 2 Complaints Form to Quality Assurance, complaints.london@istitutomarangoni.com. Complaints should be submitted within 10 working days of the written response from Stage 1.

8.2. On receipt of a formal complaint, the QA team will review the submission to check that the complaint is submitted under the correct procedure, within the set deadline, and in the required format. If the complaint is rejected, the complainant will be notified and given reasons for this decision. The complainant may request a review of this decision, as described in Section 10.

8.3. Where a complaint is submitted without consideration through the informal proceedings, the complaints team will refer the complaint back to the informal stage.

8.4. In exceptional circumstances it may be appropriate to initiate the formal procedures without having attempted informal resolution.

8.5. The complaint at this stage will be assigned an investigating officer (appendix 2) who will seek to resolve the complaint within ten working days unless the complexity of the complaint requires additional time. In such circumstances, the complaints team will be kept informed of any delays by the investigating officer and will communicate the reason for any delay to the complainant.

8.6. The student may be invited to meet with the investigating officer to discuss the complaint. Where the investigating officer considers it necessary or beneficial to meet the student, the student will be notified and informed of their right to be accompanied by a friend or student representative.

8.7. The investigating officer shall determine whether the complaint is justified and will put forward any suitable resolutions based upon their findings. The investigating officer will also put forward any recommended alterations to IML practice to reduce the risk of a similar situation occurring.

8.8. Following completion of the investigation, the investigating officer's report and suggested outcomes will be presented to the complaints team who will ensure the outcomes are communicated to the complainant and that the Complaints Tracker is updated. The outcome will be provided to the complainant by the complaints team within twenty working days of receipt of the complaint, unless the complexity of the complaint has resulted in delays requiring additional time. Where the complaint has been found unjustified, the reasons for the outcome will be clearly explained to the complainant.

8.9. Once the outcome of the investigation and any proposed solutions are communicated to the complainant, they have ten working days to respond to IML to confirm whether they are willing to accept the outcome or would like to seek to have their complaint outcome reviewed. This will be considered the end of IML internal procedures in those cases. All other complaints will be reviewed by Istituto Marangoni London. Please see Section 10 below for further details.

9. MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION

9.1. As part investigation, it may be appropriate to use mediation and conciliation to help understand the concern and assist with producing a swift and mutually satisfaction for all parties.

9.2. Mediation and conciliation are voluntary processes where an impartial independent third party helps parties to a dispute resolve issues confidentially.

9.3. If mediation is agreed during the formal stages of a complain investigation, revised timescales will be agreed. It may be necessary to restart the formal process if agreement cannot be reached.

9.4. Whilst the mediation service is in confidence, the complaints team will retain appropriate records of the meeting.

9.5. If, having sought to use an informal approach, the student considers that the complaint is not being resolved in a timely or suitable manner, they have the right to proceed to a formal investigation.

10. COMPLETION OF PROCEDURES (COP) LETTER

10.1. The London School will issue a Completion of Procedures (COP) letter after the internal School complaint procedure has been completed (Stage 1 and 2)

10.2. The issue of a COP letter serves the following purposes:

- it fixes the date when the student completes the School's internal complaints procedures;
- it clarifies the issues considered by the School under those procedures; it advises the student of the possibility and timescales of bringing a complaint to Manchester Metropolitan University review.

11. REVIEW (STAGE 3) BY MANCHESTER METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

11.1. A student may request progression of a case to the Review Stage on the following grounds:

- That the correct procedures were not followed in the consideration of their case through the earlier stages of the procedure;
- That the outcome of the formal stage of the Student Complaints Procedure was not reasonable;
- That there is new material evidence that for good reason was not available at the earlier stages of the Procedure.

11.2. The student may request a review be conducted by Manchester Metropolitan London by following their Stage 3 (Review) procedures within their Student Complaints Policy on their website.

11.3. Following the outcome of the review stage the complainant will be issued with a Completion of Procedures letter by Manchester Metropolitan University.

12. THE OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT ADJUDICATOR

12.1. Following the issue of a Completion of Procedures letter by the London School or Manchester Metropolitan University, the complainant may lodge a complaint with the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (OIA) for Higher Education. Details of the OIA and the relevant information in relation to the Scheme can be accessed at <http://www.oiahe.org.uk/>. Further information and advice can be obtained from the Quality Team, qa.london@istitutomarangoni.com or Manchester Metropolitan University.

12.2. The grounds, eligibility for review and outcomes shall be determined by the Office of the Independent Adjudicator.

12.3. A report on the findings of cases considered by the Independent Adjudicator will be received by the Istituto Marangoni London Quality Committee and Academic Board.
